

Dear Mr. Powell et al.,

I would like to voice my concern over the FCC's plan to alter media rules. It is my sincere hope that the FCC does not move forward with this plan. Our diversity in print and media is a beacon of a free country. When I think of a few elite entities owning vast media resources, I think of censorship of the people. I think of certain stories being pushed for private interests, not public attention. I see corruption and conflicts of interest. Of course, I see why the FCC would move on a plan like this, but it is my sincere hope that you realize, the bad far outweigh the good. Please decide against altering media restrictions.
